EXAM PREPARATION SPECIALISTS™ CHECKLIST

O-Level English continuous and situational writing

- [ ] I analyse the prompt: what type (continuous/situational), tone, audience, purpose
- [ ] I plan before writing: 3-5 key points linked to the scenario
- [ ] For continuous writing, I choose a plot I can sustain (not the most dramatic, but the one I can handle)
- [ ] For situational writing, I identify the format (letter, report, speech, article) and its conventions
- [ ] My opening establishes the who, what, where, when clearly
- [ ] I use the appropriate format structure (letter: date/salutation/sign-off; article: headline, byline, paragraphs)
- [ ] Each paragraph has a topic sentence linked to the previous
- [ ] I use a range of vocabulary appropriate to the register (formal/informal as required)
- [ ] I check I've addressed the task requirements (all bullet points covered)
- [ ] I proofread for accuracy (tenses, subject-verb agreement, spelling of key terms)
